I bought a car costing £3,325 via an online marketplace. I hadn't seen any negative reviews about the company so I just thought it was fine and transferred the money. But the car never arrived, and then I saw it re-advertised in different places. I tried to contact the company but they've changed all their numbers and email addresses. What can I do?

. Anyone can be targeted by a scam and sadly anyone can fall for one. Talk to your bank or card company immediately to see if you can stop or recover the payment. Report the scam to Action Fraud on 0300 123 204. You can also contact the Citizens Advice Consumer Service for help with what to do next.

Citizens Advice Consumer Service received over 9,000 reports of scams between January to April 2023. The charity is urging more people to report scams to help protect others from falling victim. As scammers get ever more sophisticated it's more important than ever that we all work together to raise awareness, report scams and share our experiences to help protect ourselves from their tricks.

The most common scams faced by the public so far this year are malicious parcel delivery messages with scammers attempting to get hold of personal information or bank details.

. Several of the most frequently encountered forms of scams involve quite sophisticated impersonation of official organisations.

It is important to keep alert to signs of a scam. These include offers that seem too good to be true, like a holiday that's much cheaper than you'd expect, or pressure to send money quickly, or in an unusual way – like by an iTunes voucher or a transfer service. Other clues are if you are asked to give away personal information such as passwords, PINs or verification codes - a reputable organisation will never ask for these things. Always step back and double check. If there is any hint that the organisation or person you are dealing with isn't genuine, such as a suspicious email address, don't part with any money or information.

Free, confidential advice and help is available from South Lakes Citizens Advice on any aspect of debt, consumer problems, benefits, housing, employment or any other problems. South Lakes Citizens Advice, your local charity, is here for you. How to access:

St Peter's Churchyard Working Party

It has been difficult to fit working party meetings in this spring and early summer and I hope that it will be convenient for as many as possible to meet on Saturday 15th July, 9.30am - 12.30pm

If you are a regular worker then you know what to expect, turn up at the church gate and then cast around to see where we are working. If this is your first time then the same applies and please don't hesitate from coming just because you are unsure of the what and where.

The working party meetings are always enjoyable and worthwhile; we enjoy the social get together and I think that everybody who uses the churchyard can see the benefit of our efforts.

Once again we will be cutting ivy and pruning trees; appropriate tools will be secateurs and loppers. A saw might also be handy if you have one. It doesn't matter if you don't have any tools, come anyway, your help will be invaluable.

As ever, it doesn't matter if you can't make the full duration of the meeting,
come when you can and leave when you have to. I look forward to seeing you or meeting you for the first time.

Richard Simpson, Churchwarden

Dear Friends,

Our Father who?

The news of a major quiz show failure has swept across the world, prompting cries of derision and disbelief from armchair critics.

The New York Post of 16th June takes up the tale. "One seemingly simple answer prompt has gotten three 'Jeopardy!' contestants in hot water with fans, as they failed to correctly finish the Lord's Prayer.

"The clue that had all three contestants stumped: Matthew 6:9 says, 'Our Father Which Art in Heaven' this 'be thy name.'

"All three contestants stood awkwardly in their place, evidently not knowing the answer as host Mayim Bialik waited for one of them to buzz in, but only the buzzer for time rang out... Fans of the game show were not happy with the contestants, as they deemed it an easy clue."

Maybe these detractors were too harsh on the competitors. After all, there is a story of the little boy who asked, "Our Father who art in heaven, hello, what's your name?" Or the little girl who solemnly declared, "Harold be your name."

The Lord's Prayer is one of those Bible passages that in the past was readily known throughout the English-speaking world, beyond the confines of Church.

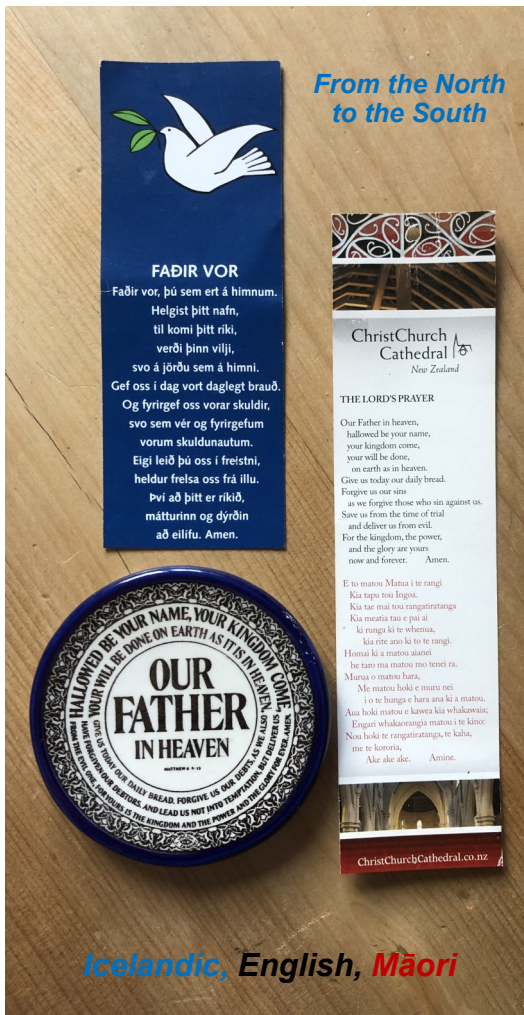

One scholar has written: "The Lord's Prayer is Christianity's greatest prayer. It is also Christianity's strangest prayer. It is prayed by all Christians, but it never mentions Christ. It is prayed in all churches, but it never mentions church. It is prayed on all Sundays, but it never mentions Sunday. It is called the 'Lord's Prayer', but it never mentions 'Lord'."

It is a prayer from the Lord, hence the usual name given to it (though some may call it Our Father). It is actually found in two places in the Bible. Matthew and Luke record two different occasions when Jesus gave similar words as a prayer. In Matthew chapter 6 the prayer is offered as part of a sermon, in Luke chapter 11 it is given as an answer to the disciples' request, "Lord, teach us to pray." In Matthew Jesus gives it as a pattern for prayer ('how you should pray'), in Luke it is a prayer to be said word for word. There is great versatility in how it might be used, both as a springboard to dive from as you are inspired about themes to pray about and as a single said prayer in its own right.

The Lord's Prayer is part of the common heritage of all Christians in all countries and throughout all time. This prayer makes the Christian faith a shared experience, not an isolated one. It reminds us of need and not greed, it points us to harmonious relationships not the way of vengeance and violence. It teaches us to depend on our Creator and also offers the privilege and possibility of knowing the God and Father of Jesus Christ as our Father.

Every Blessing, Revd Bryan Kerr
