

Deep Hope

Saturday 16th November, 10.00 am–4.00 pm at the Crooklands Hotel

A day celebrating creative mission in Cumbria and across the North. With Nigel Pimlott, mission and ministry consultant, coach, writer & semi-retired foster carer. During the day we'll unpack the challenges of finding deep hope in the midst of some big problems, how we can recognise the deep hope of kingdom in our communities, and the why, how and what of good, deeply hopeful choices we might make. The event will be a mixture of input, work-shops, discussion, resources and story. As well as contributions from Nigel and local leaders, there'll be plenty of time to share with one another your experiences of creative mission and ask questions. Wherever you are on the journey, you are welcome. Book at www.trybooking.com/uk/DGF. Tickets are £20 each but we can get a discount if we book 3 or more. If anyone is interested please let Peter Clarke know by Friday 8th November. We can share lifts, and the Mission Community can cover ticket prices

The Big Quiz Night

Saturday 16th November, 7.00 pm at St Thomas', and on Zoom

There's an extra quiz in November, in Aid of Tear Fund. This is a national Christian initiative to raise money for people in need such as those suffering the consequences of war in the Middle East. £10 per team of up to 4 whether you come to St T's or join us on Zoom. This is a very worthwhile cause so do join in. Find out more at www.tearfund.org/campaigns/big-quiz-night
