Damp and mould have built up in our home. Our letting agency say they'll speak to our landlord but there's been no action and I'm really worried about how this might affect our health.

It's not always easy to work out the cause of damp and mould. Your landlord will be responsible for the issue if it's being caused by structural problems or disrepair such as a leaking roof or bad insulation, and if it's affecting your health. However, they might suggest that it's your fault for causing condensation. On the Citizens Advice website you can find information to help you work out what type of damp you have, who is responsible and what you can do about it.

The best way to prevent condensation is to keep homes well-heated and ventilated, but high heating costs and cold weather can make this difficult. Check the website to see if you're eligible for financial support, and for advice on actions to avoid, like drying clothes on heaters.

However, if the property can't be heated and ventilated adequately to cope with normal day-to-day living activities like showering, cooking and laundry, then it's the property that's the problem, not your behaviour.

If your landlord is responsible for the damp in your home but doesn't do anything about it, you can report them to the local authority. And if you have medical evidence that damp is making you ill, you may be able to get free legal advice. Contact South Lakes Citizens Advice if you need further help.

Dear Friends,
5 tips for
 the New Year

Michael Ramsey was the 100th Archbishop of Canterbury. At the start of one new year, he wrote these words to his clergy, advising them how to approach the twelve months ahead. Reading the words, I was struck by the practical and homely wisdom which may be useful to any follower and servant of Christ:

- 1. Thank God. Often and always. Thank him carefully and wonderingly for your continuing privileges and for every experience of his goodness. Thankfulness is a soil in which pride does not easily grow.
- 2. Take care about confession of your sins. As time passes the habit of being critical about people and things grows more than each of us realise.
- 3. Be ready to accept humiliations. They can hurt terribly but they can help to keep you humble. Whether trivial or big, accept them he says. All these can be so many chances to be a little nearer to our Lord. There is nothing to fear, if you are near to the Lord and in his hands.
- 4. Do not worry about status. There is only one status that Our Lord bids us be concerned with, and that is our proximity to Him. "If a man serve me, let him follow me, and where I am there also shall my servant be". (John 12.26) That is our status; to be near our Lord wherever He may ask us to go with him.
- 5. Use your sense of humour. Laugh at things, laugh at the absurdities of life, laugh at yourself. Through the year people will thank God for you. And let the reason for their thankfulness be not just that you were a person whom they liked or loved but because you made God real to them.

Revd Bryan Kerr,
 Priest-in-Charge of St Thomas',
 St Peter's, St John's Churches
