Fourth Tuesday of the month 12.00 pm

Third Thursday of the month
meet at 12.15 for 12.30 pm

I was talking to my mum about the cost of TV licences the other day, and she said she hadn't bought one for a long time because it was too expensive. Will she get into trouble if she gets caught?

Yes, everyone who watches, records or downloads live TV, or BBC iPlayer, on any device (even a phone) has to have a TV licence by law.

From 1 April 2025, the cost is £174.50 a year. Enforcement officers can carry out checks and visit homes to verify if a licence is needed. If you are caught, you can be prosecuted and fined up to £1,000 plus costs.

However, if your mum belongs to certain groups of people, or is struggling financially, there is help available. If she is over 75 and getting Pension Credit, she will receive a free licence. Contact Citizens Advice for help with claiming Pension Credit. Blind or severely sight impaired individuals receive a 50% discount. If your mum is in residential care or sheltered accommodation, there is a concessionary licence of £7.50 – the Care Manager will have information on this.

There is also a Simple Payment Plan, which offers flexible fortnightly or monthly plans to spread the cost of a licence over 12 months. This is only available for specific customers in financial difficulty, but South Lakes Citizens Advice can make referrals. Do encourage your mum to buy a licence or to get help with payments right away, if that is applicable, to avoid a magistrate's court summons.

If you are having problems with the supplier, or they ask your mother to pay for the change, contact South Lakes Citizens Advice for help.

We are looking for a new location for our food store. We need a space that is clean, dry and large enough to store non-perishable food as well as pack deliveries.

As we are a non-profit organisation we prefer not to pay rent, however, if a small rent is required we may be able to obtain funding.

If anyone has a suitable place or knows of one please contact Mary Salter 07540603378.

Dear Friends,

On 8 May 2025, the nation will mark the 80th anniversary of Victory in Europe (VE Day), uniting to remember the end of the Second World War in Europe.

In his radio broadcast on VE Day, King George VI was most emphatic in giving glory to God,

"Today we give thanks to Almighty God for a great deliverance. Speaking from our Empire's oldest capital city, war-battered but never for one moment daunted or dismayed – speaking from London, I ask you to join with me in that act of thanksgiving.

"... But at this hour, when the dreadful shadow of war has passed from our hearths and homes in these islands, we may at last make one pause for thanksgiving and then turn our thoughts to the tasks all over the world which peace in Europe brings with it.

"... We shall have failed, and the blood of our dearest will have flowed in vain, if the victory which they died to win does not lead to a lasting peace, founded on justice and established in good will. To that, then, let us turn our thoughts on this day of just triumph and proud sorrow; and then take up our work again, resolved as a people to do nothing unworthy of those who died for us and to make the world such a world as they would have desired, for their children and for ours.

"This is the task to which now honour binds us. In the hour of danger we humbly committed our cause into the Hand of God, and He has been our Strength and Shield. Let us thank him for His mercies, and in this hour of Victory commit ourselves and our new task to the guidance of that same strong Hand."

Sadly many of those who served in the War are no longer with us, but their achievement in bringing victory and the challenge to strive for justice and peace remain ever before us.

Christians see a parallel here with the Christian life. In the message of Jesus' life, death and resurrection, we have the announcement of a greater victory, a victory achieved by another on our behalf. Because he lived the life he did, we can be assured that God is there, loving us and coming down to our level. Because he died that terrible death on the cross, friendship and forgiveness with God is offered. Because he stepped out of his grave on Easter Sunday, a new life with God forever is promised to those who will turn from their sin and turn to trust Christ.

The cross and resurrection of Jesus accomplished an eternal victory over death itself. That victory is announced to us, achieved by the blood of another. We now live in response to that great achievement. That means we pray and work for peace; we are concerned with matters of justice. As a nation we "resolved as a people to do nothing unworthy of those who died for us"; as Christians we do likewise - nothing unworthy of him who died for us.
